THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING ALABAMA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Alabama businesses paid $35 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 12 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Alabama businesses have paid an extra $159 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Alabama exports have faced $307 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $21 million in December. These tariffs make Alabama less competitive. In December, Alabama exports subject to retaliation dropped by 70%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Alabama jobs are on the line.
