THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING ALASKA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Alaska businesses paid $1.8 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 53 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Alaska businesses have paid an extra $5.5 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Alaska exports have faced $109 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $4.4 million in December. These tariffs make Alaska less competitive. In December, Alaska exports subject to retaliation dropped by 63%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Alaska jobs are on the line.
