THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING ARIZONA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Arizona businesses paid $23 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 10 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Arizona businesses have paid an extra $91 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Arizona exports have faced $32 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $6.0 million in December. These tariffs make Arizona less competitive. In December, Arizona exports subject to retaliation dropped by 19%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Arizona jobs are on the line.
