THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING ARKANSAS ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Arkansas businesses paid $24 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 9 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Arkansas businesses have paid an extra $73 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Arkansas exports have faced $28 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $3.6 million in December. These tariffs make Arkansas less competitive. In December, Arkansas exports subject to retaliation dropped by 73%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Arkansas jobs are on the line.
