THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING HAWAII ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Hawaii businesses paid $2.2 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 7 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Hawaii businesses have paid an extra $6.9 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Hawaii exports have faced $4.5 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $877,000 in December. These tariffs make Hawaii less competitive. In December, Hawaii exports subject to retaliation dropped by 28%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Hawaii jobs are on the line.
