THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING ILLINOIS ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Illinois businesses paid $222 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 10 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Illinois businesses have paid an extra $870 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Illinois exports have faced $257 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $38 million in December. These tariffs make Illinois less competitive. In December, Illinois exports subject to retaliation dropped by 55%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Illinois jobs are on the line.
