THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING INDIANA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Indiana businesses paid $74 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 8 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Indiana businesses have paid an extra $303 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Indiana exports have faced $125 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $21 million in December. These tariffs make Indiana less competitive. In December, Indiana exports subject to retaliation dropped by 35%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Indiana jobs are on the line.
