THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING KANSAS ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Kansas businesses paid $20 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 8 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Kansas businesses have paid an extra $61 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Kansas exports have faced $41 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $6.2 million in December. These tariffs make Kansas less competitive. In December, Kansas exports subject to retaliation dropped by 76%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Kansas jobs are on the line.
