THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING KENTUCKY ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Kentucky businesses paid $48 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 11 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Kentucky businesses have paid an extra $232 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Kentucky exports have faced $77 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $8.6 million in December. These tariffs make Kentucky less competitive. In December, Kentucky exports subject to retaliation dropped by 76%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Kentucky jobs are on the line.
