THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING MONTANA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Montana businesses paid $1.1 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 11 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Montana businesses have paid an extra $6.6 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Montana exports have faced $3.2 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $818,000 in December. These tariffs make Montana less competitive. In December, Montana exports subject to retaliation dropped by -11%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Montana jobs are on the line.
