THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING NEW YORK ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, New York businesses paid $142 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 7 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, New York businesses have paid an extra $463 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, New York exports have faced $223 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $38 million in December. These tariffs make New York less competitive. In December, New York exports subject to retaliation dropped by 20%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. New York jobs are on the line.
