THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING OKLAHOMA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Oklahoma businesses paid $26 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 9 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Oklahoma businesses have paid an extra $105 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Oklahoma exports have faced $25 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $3.6 million in December. These tariffs make Oklahoma less competitive. In December, Oklahoma exports subject to retaliation dropped by 47%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Oklahoma jobs are on the line.
