THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING OREGON ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Oregon businesses paid $30 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 14 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Oregon businesses have paid an extra $144 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Oregon exports have faced $72 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $18 million in December. These tariffs make Oregon less competitive. In December, Oregon exports subject to retaliation dropped by 7%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Oregon jobs are on the line.
