THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING SOUTH CAROLINA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, South Carolina businesses paid $62 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 7 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, South Carolina businesses have paid an extra $216 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, South Carolina exports have faced $267 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $34 million in December. These tariffs make South Carolina less competitive. In December, South Carolina exports subject to retaliation dropped by 25%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. South Carolina jobs are on the line.
