THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING TEXAS ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Texas businesses paid $396 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 15 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Texas businesses have paid an extra $1.7 billion in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Texas exports have faced $574 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $96 million in December. These tariffs make Texas less competitive. In December, Texas exports subject to retaliation dropped by 49%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Texas jobs are on the line.
