THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING VERMONT ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Vermont businesses paid $1.3 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 8 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Vermont businesses have paid an extra $5.5 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Vermont exports have faced $3.8 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $772,000 in December. These tariffs make Vermont less competitive. In December, Vermont exports subject to retaliation dropped by 36%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Vermont jobs are on the line.
