THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING VIRGINIA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Virginia businesses paid $45 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 7 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Virginia businesses have paid an extra $172 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Virginia exports have faced $67 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $11 million in December. These tariffs make Virginia less competitive. In December, Virginia exports subject to retaliation dropped by 34%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Virginia jobs are on the line.
