THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING WASHINGTON ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Washington businesses paid $92 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 11 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, Washington businesses have paid an extra $318 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, Washington exports have faced $192 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $27 million in December. These tariffs make Washington less competitive. In December, Washington exports subject to retaliation dropped by 38%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Washington jobs are on the line.
