THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING WEST VIRGINIA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, West Virginia businesses paid $5.6 million in tariffs on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs in December. That is about 29 times the tariffs paid on those same products in December 2017.
- Since new tariffs were imposed, West Virginia businesses have paid an extra $20 million in import tariffs.
- Since the trade war began, West Virginia exports have faced $37 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $3.4 million in December. These tariffs make West Virginia less competitive. In December, West Virginia exports subject to retaliation dropped by 29%.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. West Virginia jobs are on the line.
