THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING NEW HAMPSHIRE ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, New Hampshire businesses have paid an extra $71 million in import taxes on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs, including $9.6 million in May.
- Tariffs on China “List 3” goods, which accounted for $23 million of the new taxes paid to date, jumped from 10% to 25% on May 10. New Hampshire imported $497 million of “List 4” products in 2018, which could face new tariffs up to 25% soon.
- Since the trade war began, New Hampshire exports have faced $26 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $5.9 million in May. These tariffs make exports less competitive.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. New Hampshire jobs are on the line.
