THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING ARKANSAS ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Arkansas businesses have paid an extra $247 million in import taxes on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs, including $33 million in September.
- Tariffs on China “List 3” goods accounted for $157 million of the new taxes paid to date. Arkansas imported $3.3 billion of “List 4” products in 2018, of which $1.2 billion started facing additional tariffs of 15% on September 1, and the rest will face additional 15% tariffs starting December 15.
- Since the trade war began, Arkansas exports have faced $104 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $6.0 million in September. These tariffs make Arkansas exports less competitive.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Arkansas jobs are on the line.
